

Cyrus One

Producer: La Tour Melas

Vintage: 2022

Notes: "Deep purple in color with a violet rim. Nose offers intense raspberry aromas, notes of blackcurrant bud, perfectly combined with spices of wood (vanilla, toasted aromas). With a smooth texture and a medium body structure, Cyrus One 2021 is a pleasing wine that is both suitable for current consumption and possesses the capacity for aging." Handmade crop, Separate vinification of each variety, spontaneous fermentation then malolactic fermentation in barrels for the Cabernet Franc, Merlot Aging for 13 months in 225lt - 400lt barrels.

Appellation: Central Greece

Wine Type: Red Wine

Grape Varietal: 40% Agiorgitiko, 32% Cabernet Franc, and 28% Merlot

Soils: Nemea- silt and lime soil/ Achinos - clay and limestone

Farming: Handpicked, Low Invention

Alcohol: 14%

Acidity: 4.7

Residual Sugar: >1

Bottle Production: 17,000

Aged: 13 months in French Oak

Food Pairing: Steaks with roasted potatoes, pork tenderloin with grilled vegetables and fresh herb bread.

Aging Potential: 25 years

Imported By: R&R Selections ~ Premier Greek Wine